

SEASON TICKET PACKAGES

Standard Season Series $130

This subscription includes six main stage productions including three musicals this year with reserved seating and full exchange privileges all year long!

Season Flex Pass $60

Pick any 3 shows now and schedule dates later. Again with reserved seating and full exchange privileges all year long.

Student Flex Pass $45

Pick any 3 shows now and schedule dates later. Again with reserved seating and full exchange privileges all year long.

Standard Season Tickets are not available for purchase online. Call the Box Office for assistance.

530.877.5760 Flex Pass Tickets are available for purchase online.

Single Show Ticket Prices

Ride the Cyclone

Reserved: $25 / General: $22

Door: $28

All Other Shows

Reserved: $18 / General: $16

Door: $20

Bargain Tickets at the Door

Thrifty Thursdays / Matinees

Ride the Cyclone: $20

All Other Shows: $14

WHERE TO FIND US

3735 Neal Rd
Paradise, CA 95969

Mailing Address:
P.O. Box 13
Paradise, CA 95967

Box Office: 530.877.5760
Online: www.totr.org

Celebrating 51 years...

THEATRE
on the Ridge

2026 SEASON

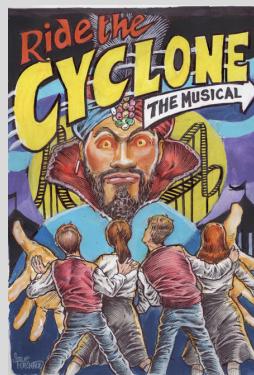

Jan 29 - Feb 8

The White Chip is a deeply moving, unexpectedly funny story of one man's fight to rebuild his life. Based on playwright Sean Daniels' own journey, this honest and hopeful play follows Steven—a theater professional who seems to have it all until his world unravels under the weight of addiction. Told with warmth, wit, and courage, The White Chip reminds us that recovery is possible, forgiveness is powerful, and there's always a way back to yourself.

Mar 26 - Apr 12

Ride the Cyclone is a darkly comedic and profoundly moving musical that follows six high school choir members whose lives are cut short by a tragic roller coaster accident. In a surreal limbo, they are given one final chance to share their stories and compete for a second shot at life. Blending sharp wit with emotional depth, this imaginative musical explores destiny and the enduring power of human connection.

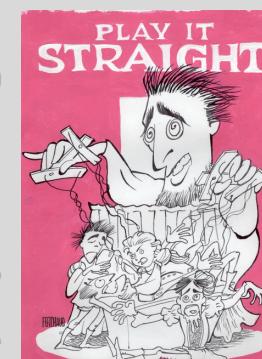

June 4 - 21

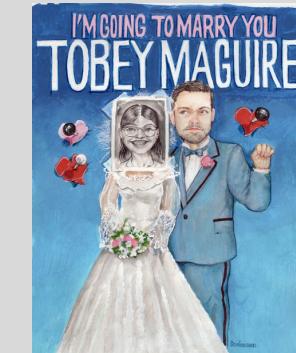

Wait,...what's this?...Murder most foul in the Vanderpanderpelter penthouse?! Once again, the mighty mysterious crime fighter, Captain-Man, and his young thrill-seeking companion, Cockatoo, the boy fairly decent, plunge deep into a baffling mystery as they find themselves pitted against a dark cloaked Gillian and menaces there very lives as he leaves behind a trail of corpses. Also on the scene is Sargeant Samuel Yukon of the Gothamopolis PD, who learns that CaptainMan is a farce to be reckoned with.

July 23 - Aug 9

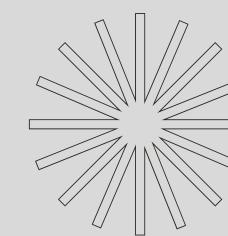

Get ready for a bold, funny, and heartfelt ride! Play It Straight pulls back the curtain on a world where everyone's playing a part—until one honest moment flips the script. Secrets crack, friendships shift, and masks fall in this sharp, fast-paced play about truth, image, and what happens when we finally stop pretending.

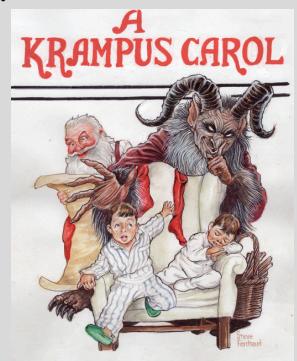

Sept 10 - 27

To cope with the absence of her father, neglect from her mother, and ridicule by her classmates, eighth grader Shelby Hinkley has put all her time and energy into the only thing that matters in 2004: Spiderman. When leading a devout online fan club proves insufficient to her needs, Shelby decides to risk it all for love, kidnap famous actor Tobey Maguire, and marry him in her basement. Her fantasies of happily ever after start to crumble as she realizes Tobey may not be the charismatic hearthrob she thinks she knows. A Y2K farce, this show is a full-throttle explosion of our para-social relationships and the obsessions that detonate them.

Nov 5 - 22

When naughty meets nice, all holiday cheer breaks loose. In this wickedly funny holiday play, Santa's jolly reign is challenged by none other than Krampus—the horned, mischief-loving creature of European folklore. As yuletide traditions collide, mayhem ensues at the North Pole with elves in panic, reindeer on strike, and holiday magic hanging by a tinsel-thin thread. Krampus Claus is a darkly comedic, delightfully twisted tale that blends festive fun with a devilish edge.