In the village of Sleepy Hollow, a schoolteacher named Ichabod Crane loves telling ghost stories to his young students, especially about the Headless Horseman who rides at night looking for his lost head. One night, after a party, Ichabod rides home through the dark woods and thinks he sees the ghost. The next day, Ichabod is gone, and all that is found is his hat and a pumpkin. Some in the village think he decided to move away, some think he was spirited away by the shadowy figure of the Headless Horseman. To this day, the mysterious legend continues to be told, keeping the village's spooky reputation alive.
