Alice in Wonderland is a delightful children's play that follows the curious Alice as she falls into a whimsical Wonderland. Along the way, she encounters eccentric characters, including the Cheshire Cat, the Mad Hatter, and the Queen of Hearts. Through a series of comical and enchanting adventures, Alice learns valuable lessons about curiosity and the importance of home, all set to a captivating musical score of a few familiar songs that add magic to this beloved classic tale. This is not a musical or Disney version of the story, but rather a play with a little music.
